

Carter Robertson

www.carterrobertson.com

Carter Robertson has worked as an artist, writer, and singer in the music industry for all of her life. She holds the distinction of being the only female member of Waylon Jennings' band, the Waylors, throughout Country Music's "Outlaw" era. She recorded over 17 albums with Waylon Jennings and Jessi Colter, and her voice can be heard on such hits as "Are You Ready For the Country", "Dukes of Hazzard," "Come With Me," and "Luckenbach Texas." She has also recorded with Willie Nelson, Kris Kristofferson, Don Was, James Taylor, and many others.

Carter is a true vocalist, comfortable singing a variety of genres, and shining at everything from rockin' country to soulful blues. Often accompanied by her Grammy award-winning husband, Barny Robertson, they have performed together on nationally recognized stages including the historic Ryman Auditorium and the legendary Troubadour. Her latest releases include her Neighborhood of Secrets album, as well as her musical memoir Playin' on the Tracks that was also recently released as a full feature film.

Excerpts of Playin' on the Tracks LIVE!

<http://youtu.be/uzBHxALKPCU>

"Robertson is an honest, detailed and engaging storyteller...who sings with strong and soulful conviction. Talk about powerful- this is a songwriter folks! - Outlaw Magazine

Bookings & Info:

bookings@carterrobertson.com

Facebook: Carter Robertson

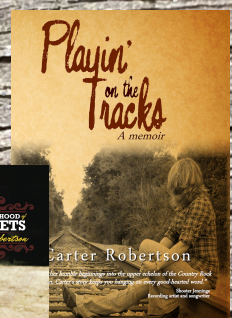

Twitter: @CarterRobertson

DVD

CD

BOOK